to a Jewish Rabbi as having come all the way from Palestine to lay the grievances of his people, who are said to be suffering oppression at the hands of the Otteman Government, and asking the aid and protection of the United States. As there is an intimation, also, that there might possibly be an organized effort on the part of the Leraelites in their country to further the enterprise, will you permit me to offer a few remarks on the subject? Ever since the first war of Independ-ence, America has been regarded as the champion of liberty, and more than ever since the quelling of the recent rebellion. Hence, even nationalities on the other side of the globe are longing to nestle under the wing of the eagle of liberty, which they imagine overshadows the remotest ends of the earth, Heretofore, those who have been in a state of revo-intion, like Greece, Poland, Hungary, etc., have looked to America for aid and sympathy; but now, because the lands in which their lot has been cast are not leeming with public enterprise and rapid prosperity like Americo, communities who are suffering are induced to make The last application of the United States Government is from a Jewish Ribbi from Jerusalem, who is auxious

We need only refer to the recent expose in the Cretan affair, which must be fresh in the mind of the public. The spirit of civilization and a superiority of wealth have imbued the hearts of the Chief Magistrate of the United States and the "What do you want with me, calling me out of the House of Representatives every day?"

Hence it is unjust to say the present condition of the I-raelites of Turkey is the fault of the Government. Moreover, the I-raelites of Turkey, of whom there are about 20,-000 in Palestine and 150,000 in the whole Empire, are not fair representatives of the race. Unlike their brethren in Eu rope and America, they are ignorant and bigoted and treacherons. If the friends, then, of these miserable and "suffering" people are truly desirous of doing them practical good, they should leave imaginary grievances aside, and at once en-deavor to educate them.
